The USFS has recently started using cutting by description on some of their timber sales. This workshop will dive into the process of how this tool was introduced and what is to be expected working on a sale with this cutting description. You will also hear from a purchaser on how it is working on current timber sales.

Speakers will include:

Paul Donnellon - USFS Flathead National Forest Supervisory Forester

Andy Geissler - AFRC Federal Lands Manager

Cameron Wohlschlegel - Lands & Resource Manager F.H. Stoltze Land & Lumber

The format of the program will be a roundtable discussion with opportunities for discussion and questions.
